RETOUR — CONTEMPORARY DANCE PIECE BY LABORGRAS

Darkness. Silence. Shadow. A body moving like a spider across the room. Invisible. "Retour", the new piece by a dance collective Laborgras, needs no words to convey its message. Performed at their Paul-Lincke-Ufer studio, just few songs sang by the French singer Phoebe Killdee does the job. It brings us to ask ourselves the question: what if I were someone else? Originally conceptualized as a solo piece, it was conceived for two dancers, performed by Renata Graziadel as the protagonist and Maria Giulia Seranton as her mirror. A quiet dance sans conversation that will speak to your heart - a must see. (Text: Judith Peller / Fotos: David Beecroft)
